

Founder and Artistic & Executive Director of Independent Pictures - a non profit arts organization that provided an outlet for independent filmmakers and screenwriters. She is credited for creating a variety of short films, educational programs and salons - most notably - the film production training program.

For several years she has worked as an independent contractor on films and commercials in a variety of departments- most recently as a line producer and production manager. She is past recipient of Media Arts Fellowship from the Ohio Arts Council.

Bernadette Gillota
216.926.6166
bernadette@juno.com